Nestled within the Derbyshire Peaks, The Izaak Walton Hotel is a charming 17th Century country house hotel offering comfort, history and views of outstanding natural beauty. Named after the famous author of 'the Compleat Angler'

The hotel is privately owned and in a idyllic setting with modern facilities offering a unique combination of warm hospitality, tranquillity and tradition whilst maintaining high standards of service.

Our 5 meeting rooms can accommodate from 6 to 50 delegates in a boardroom style layout and our largest room will seat up to 120 guests for banquet.

The hotel lends itself ideally for training sessions with a motivational aspect – the surrounding hills, valleys and river are perfect for team building exercises. We can also arrange quad biking, archery, clay shooting and fly fishing at the nearby Yeeveley Estate for hospitality or motivational events.

As a small independent hotel, we offer a flexible approach in meeting our client's requirements. The sample menus enclosed are merely an indication of what we have to offer and the kitchen brigade pride themselves on their abilities to cater for all tastes. Our menus are complemented by a carefully selected wine list.

Our 34 well appointed bedrooms have en-suite facilities as well as a welcome tray, satellite television, internet access, trouser press and hairdryer and most rooms offer breath-taking views of the Peaks.
